

Intra-oral Massage Client Release

The State of Oregon requires that to perform intra-oral massage clients be informed of their rights, as well as for written consent to be given.

Intra-oral massage is massage performed inside of the mouth with a gloved hand for the purpose of maintaining good health and establishing and maintaining good physical condition of the soft tissues of the mouth, tongue and jaw. As a client I understand that I will receive intra-oral massage and hereby give my consent to receive intra-oral massage from Aaron Allen LMT. I recognize that this in no way constitutes diagnosis of any condition nor substitutes the advice of medical professionals. I understand that I have the right to have a witness present for this or any other procedure, and that my consent to treatment may be withdrawn at any time.
